Problem Statement

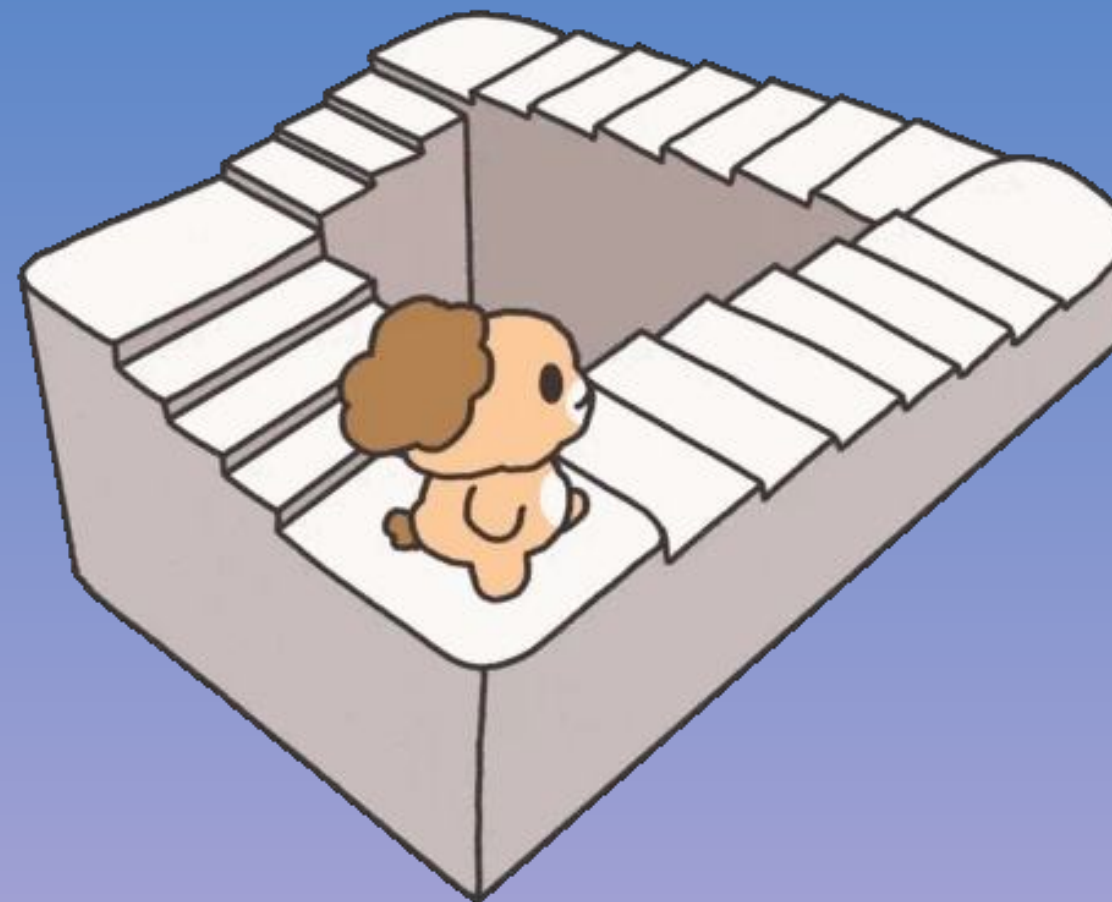

Many people want to try out a new hobby, but they have trouble finding the right community and resources to getting started.

Solution

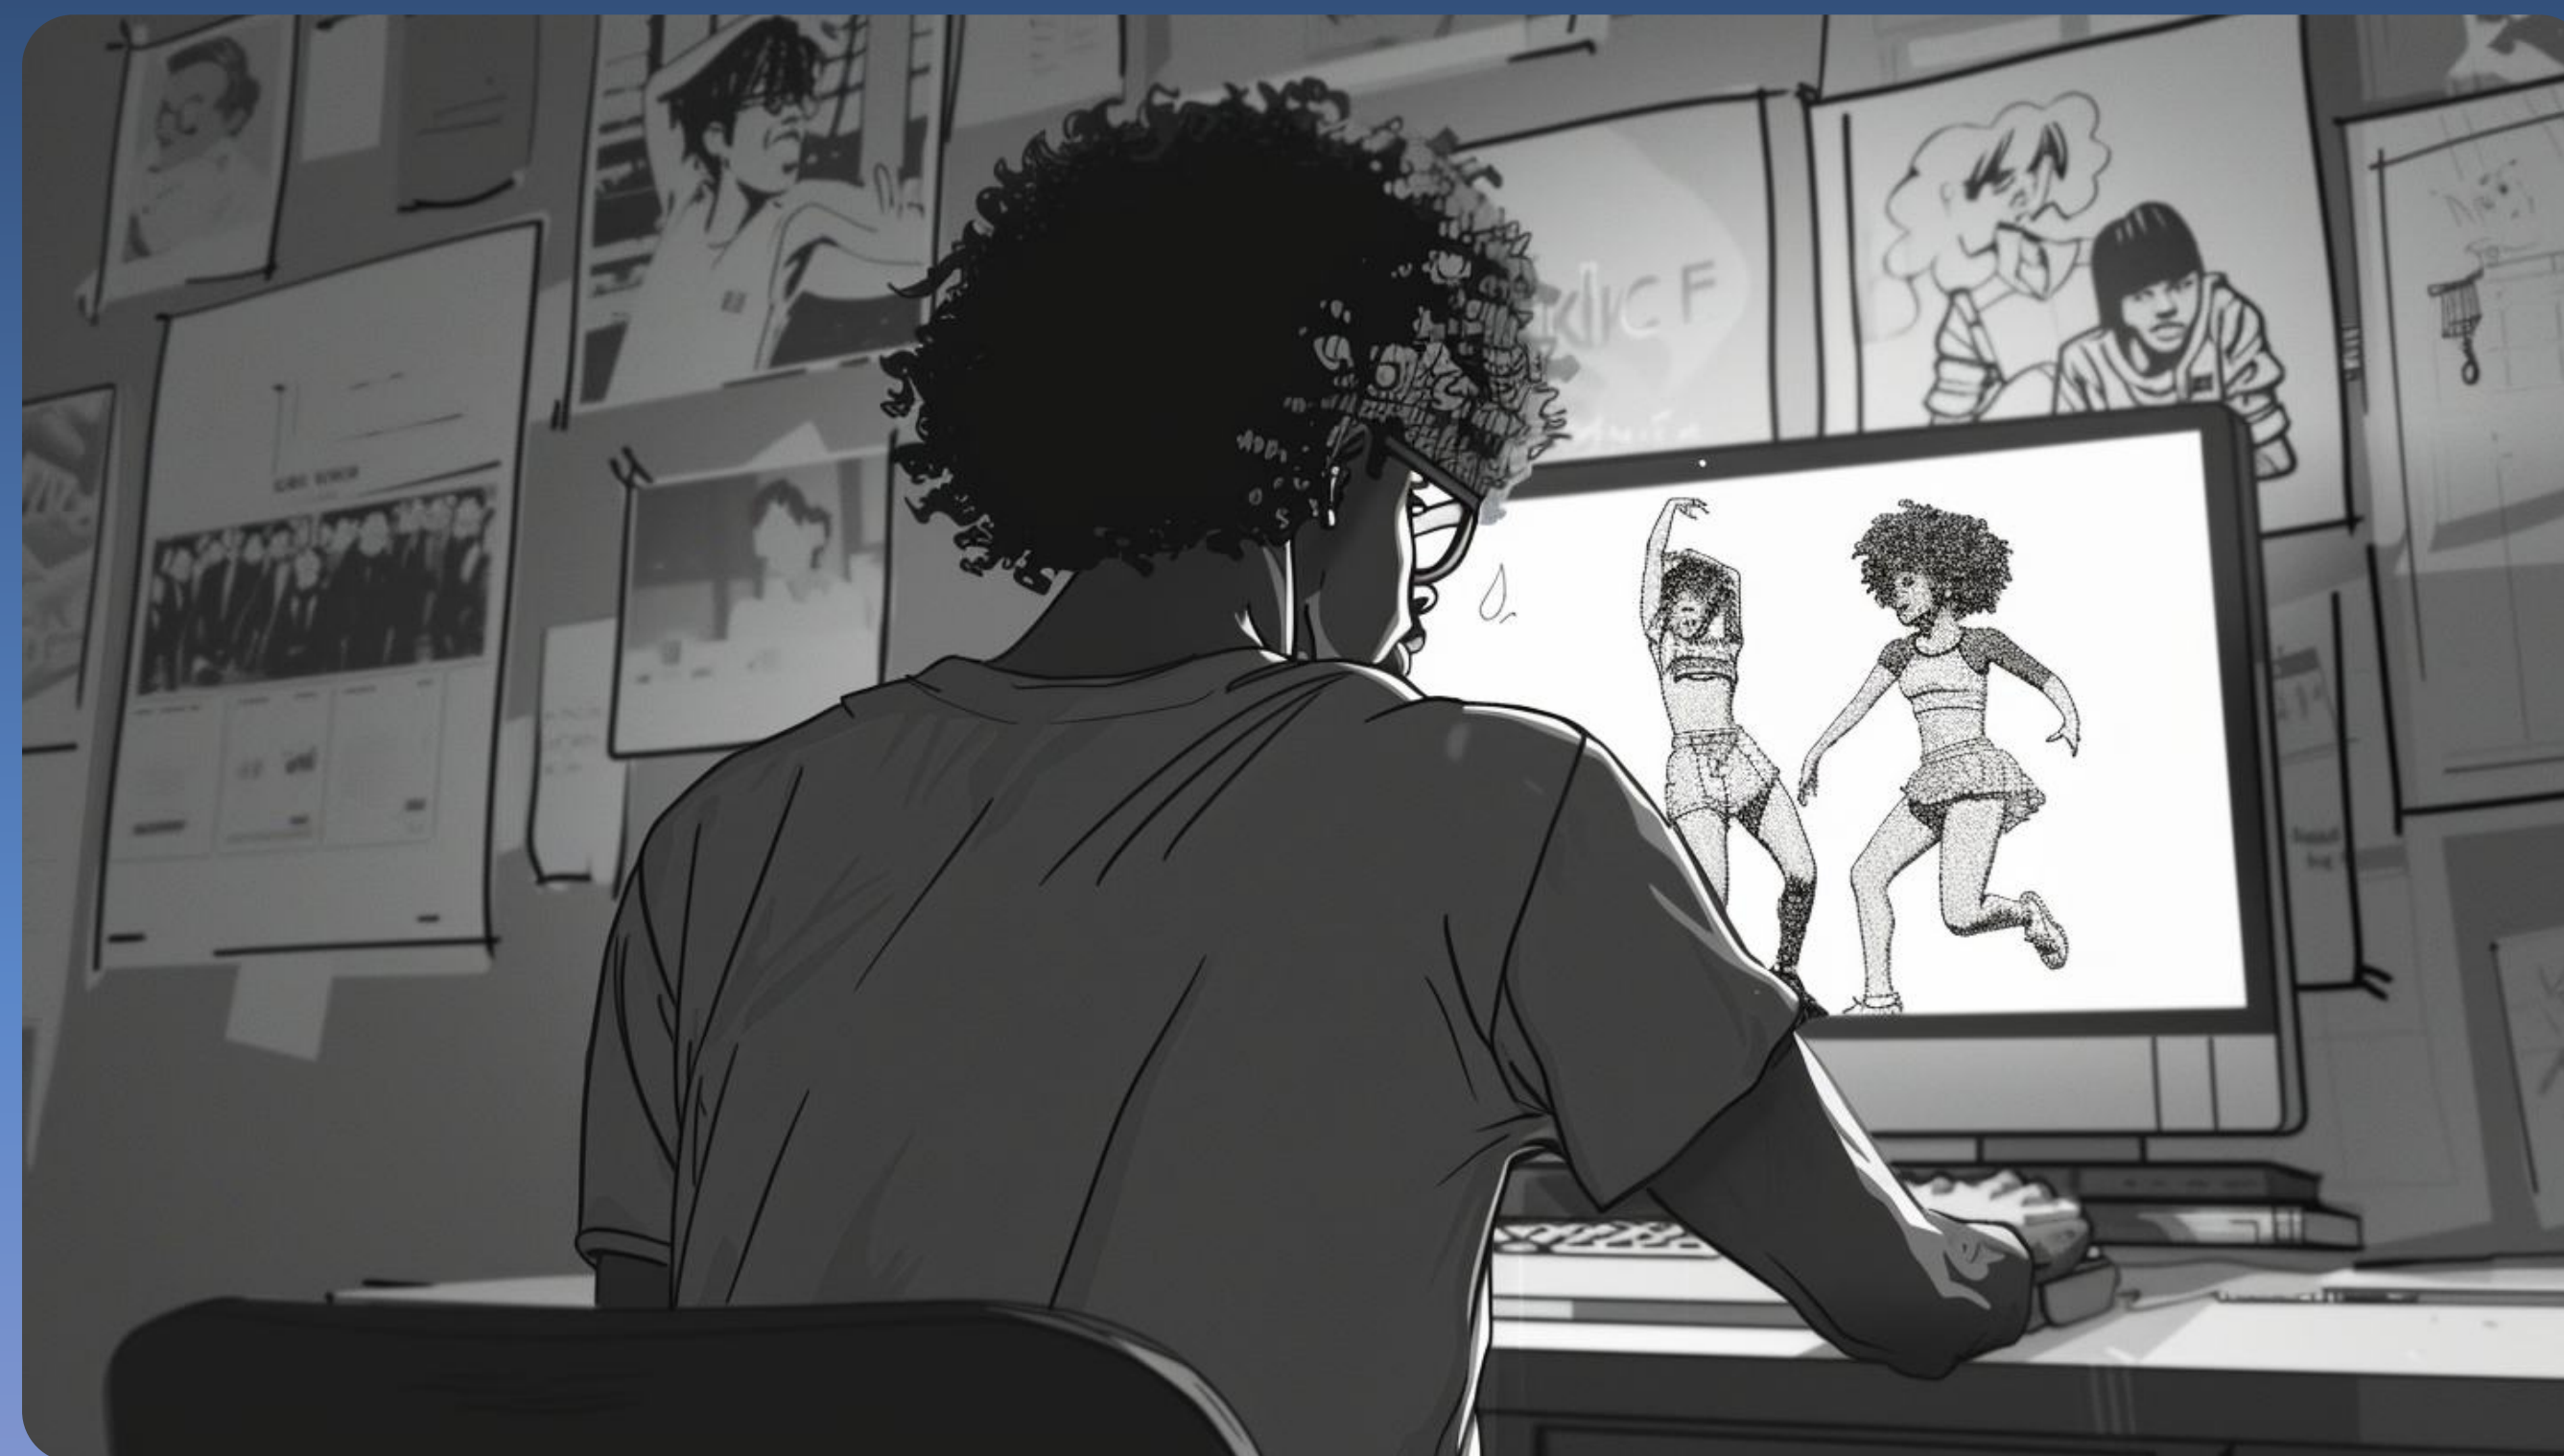

HobbyLoop: Be in the loop for your favorite hobbies.

Find the community and resources for your hobbies right at your fingertips.

User Research Insights

1. Participants were confused on why the first frame is labelled “forum” because many participants labeled the feature a “poll”, not a “forum”.

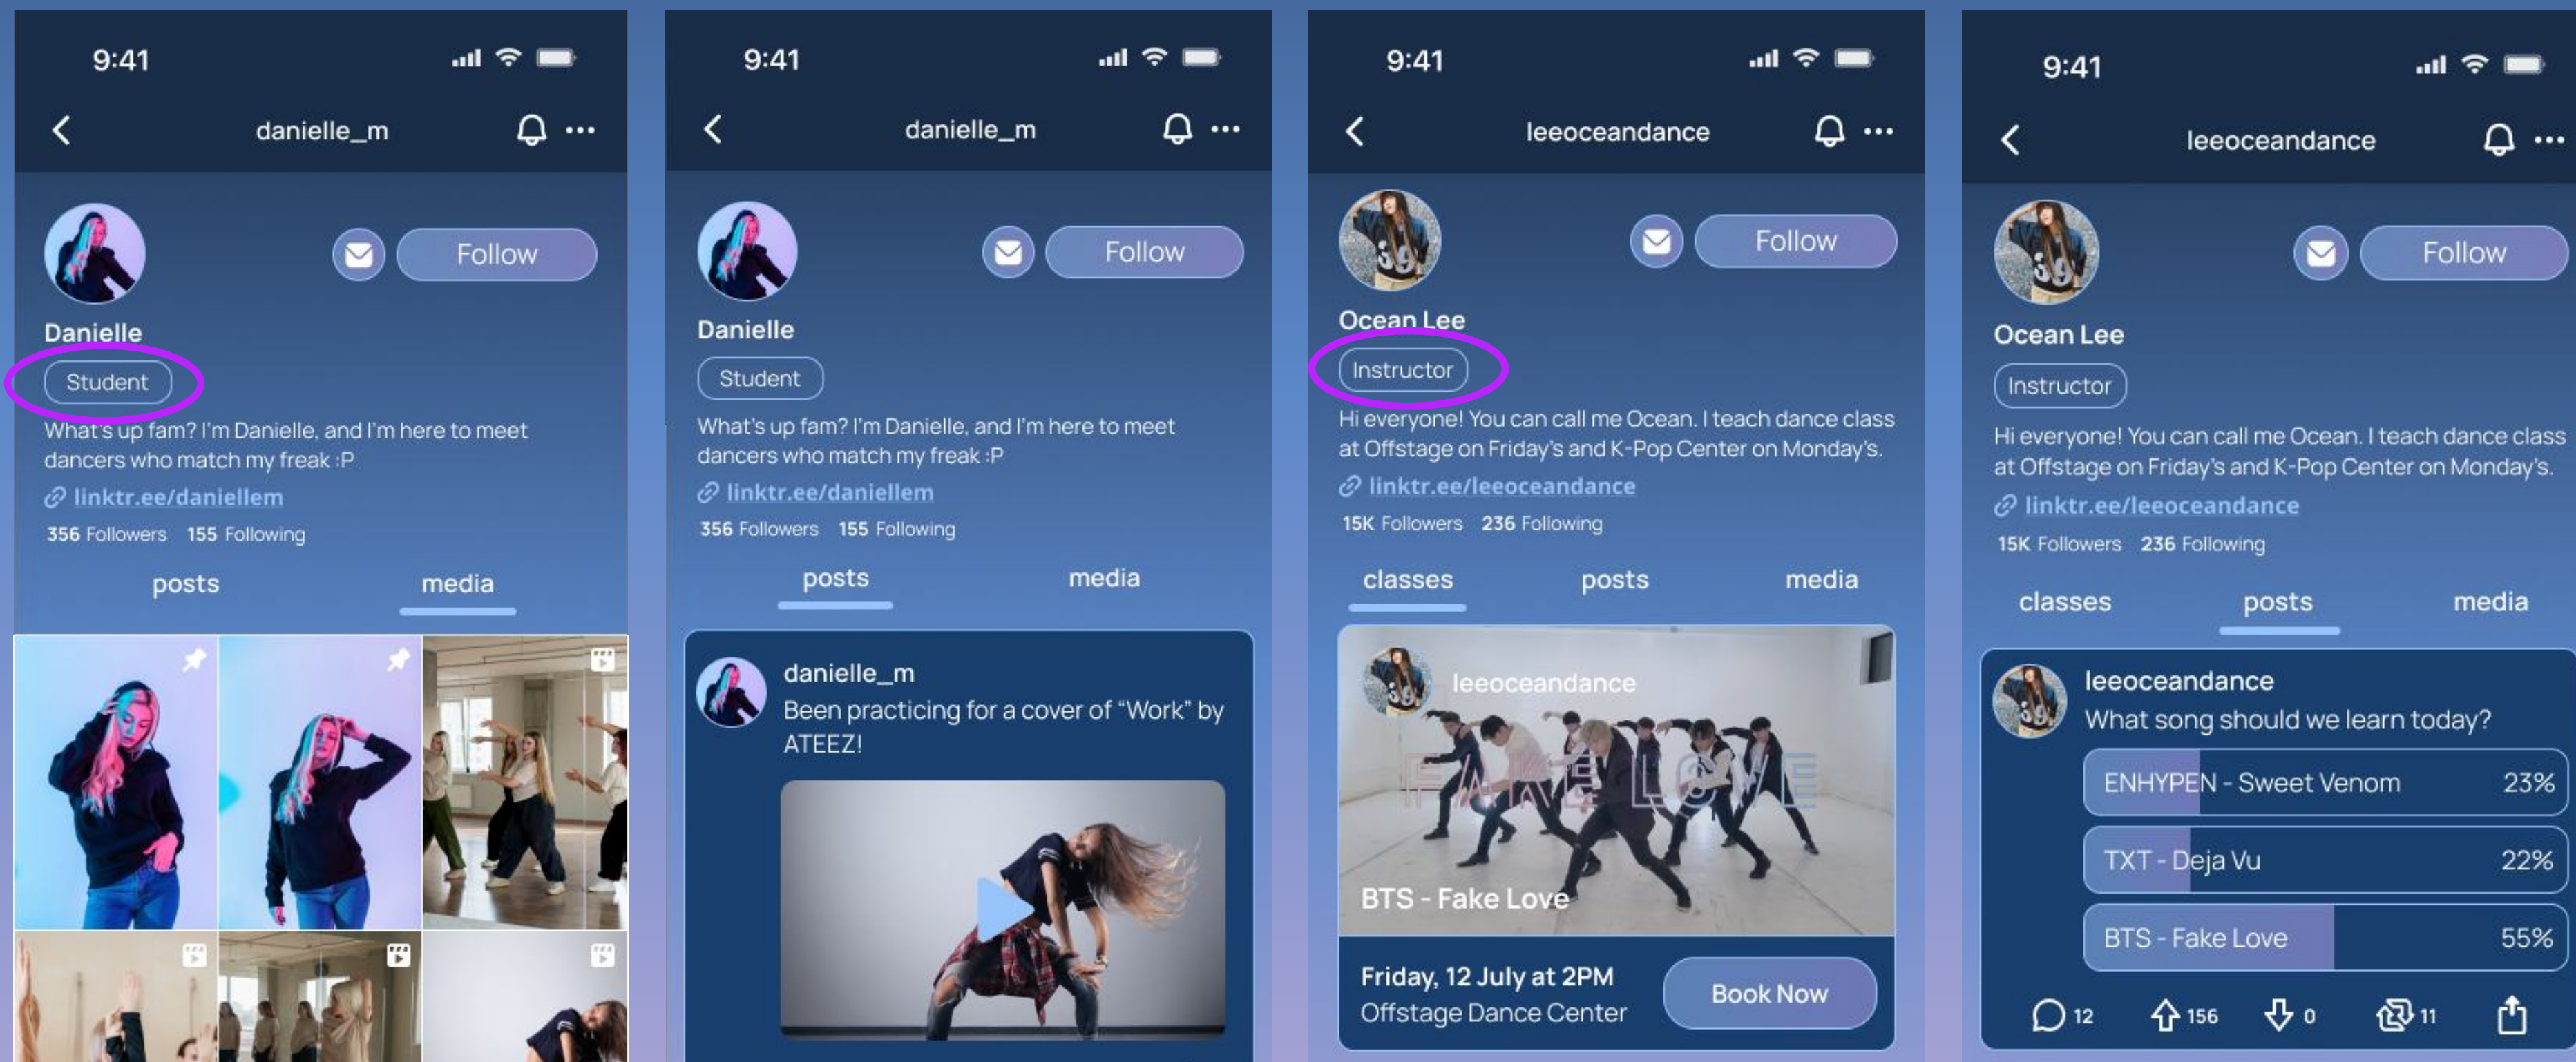

User Research Insights

2. Participants did not realize that they could filter their search by difficulty.

User Research Insights

3. Participants had a hard time differentiating between dance student profile pages and dance instructor profile pages.
